SPRIG O' MINT

CLASS OF 1952

BREMEN, INDIANA

JOHN

Howdy Folks!

Well, come right along with us to the big corral and have a look at the last roundup of the class of 1952.

We'll never forget all our joys and our sorrows from the past twelve years. We've had accomplishment but nary a failure. We've learned everything -- well, almost everything!

Although we may not have appeared as attentive and as alert as our teachers would want, we learned a lot. Yes, sir, quite a lot -- and not all from books either!

Now, as our Senior year ends, we will go sit on the gate and watch the class of '53 take the reins in the big corral as we leave to ride across the range of life.

CAFETERIA

We are happy to leave to the little greenhorns a new cook shack. We thoroughly enjoyed the hot grub that we received each day, and were willing to spend some time in line waiting our turn. We long ago learned that it doesn't pay to try to "buck" the line.

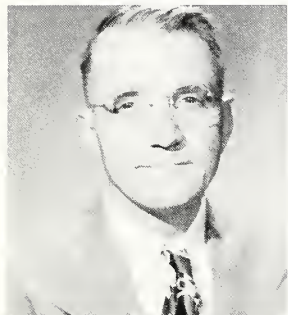

The cafeteria was open to us for dances, parties and other school and community affairs. Even some of our study halls were held in this sunny building. The cafeteria is a building that is being used to the best advantage for all the students of Bremen School. We feel sure that the cafeteria will be feeding many little tenderfeet in the years to come.

BAR 12 RANCH

In the fall of 1940, 23 little buckaroos made their way to the brandnew ranch house. During the first few years in the new building our instructors tried hard to teach us the ropes about cow-handling and range-riding.

Finally the day came when we moved on into the main BHS Bunkhouse. We were 37 strong by that time. Then Doris Sahlhoff, Rosemary Mutti, Mary Borneman, and Stanley Mutti joined us from the Lutheran School. We thought we were pretty experienced cow-hands but the way it turned out we were really pretty green. At the 10th roundup Bill Fox returned from North Manchester and Ralph Stichter came from Mount Ayer. In our Junior year we added several new cowpokes. Jerry Treacle came from Canton, Ohio, Wally Huffer from Etna Green, Everett Miller from Rochester, and Mary Jane Pittman from Nappanee. At the beginning of our Final Year Bob Page joined us from South Bend and Manfred Schwoch, Otto Oesterle, and Helga Rinke visited us from Germany.

When we organized for our Junior year our leader was Janie Mayer as president. Richard Nichols was elected vice president and Bon Tombaugh, secretary-treasurer. During our Junior year there was much excitement with magazine sales and getting our classrings. Our Junior play was very successful and loads of fun. We presented "Lights Out" a mystery comedy in three acts. The biggest week of the year was the week preceding our Junior-Senior prom. We carried out the theme of "Oriental Gardens" and it seemed as if we were really transported into the mysterious wonders of the Orient. Our King and Queen were Jim Drof and Evelyn Corl.

Finally our last year rolled around and we elected Violet Borkholder as president, Bill Fox, vice president, Shirley Long, secretary, and Stanley Mutti, treasurer. There are three kinds of Seniors; Those who date and stay out late, those who loaf and congregate, and those who --- graduate. The class of '52 is the best class ever. Just look at our records: artists, actors, athletes, musicians, journalists, and occasional scholar, and a fine crop of loafers. We have finished smashing lab equipment, ground our last source theme out, thrown together our last note books, cheated on our last exams, and played our last games on the hardwood of Bremen High. Now we go out into the cold, cruel world. It's been a long road from the lollipop days to the prom breakfast parties.

Our Senior year came to a close but we will always remember announcements and name cards -- Senior day and Senior Supper -- Prom -- Baccalaureate and Commencement.

As usual we were a little sorry as the time for commencement grew near. As we take our place in the line of graduates we look back on the happy memories of a busy high school life and then turn to face the future, leaving our activities to the class of '53.

OUR JUNIOR YEAR

Our Jr. Play "Lights Out" was a light mystery. The hero, Richard Nichols, and the heroine, Marsha Robinson, finally solve the mystery after several episodes of lights going out and screams. Violet Borkholder, Bill Fox, Evelyn Corl, Verna Palmer, Everett Miller, Martha Perrot, Stanley Mutti, Neva Hochstetler, and Bill Mummey also did their bit to make the play a rollicking success. Carol Klinedinst was student director, Miss Terwilliger our producer.

We also gave a prom in honor of the senior class. Our theme was "oriental," with Jim Drof and Evelyn Corl reigning over the gala occasion as king and queen. We all pitched in to decorate the gym which we did in blue. Chinese nut cups, menus, and programs added to the scene.

In this manner our junior year passed and we became seniors.

BAR // RANCH

Get out of the way, you swaggering Seniors! Here comes the class of '53. Next year you will be totally eclipsed. There are eleven of us in band, five in Concert Choir, eight boys made the team and eleven girls are in G.A.A.

Four out of five of our girls are pretty and the fifth can get a date by setting a wolf trap. The boys have a boycott on brains, looks, and smoothness. And the faculty loves us! So run along now, and Good Luck to you!

BAR 10 RANCH

You can always tell a Sophomore but you can't tell him much. Sophs take a beating. Upperclassmen think they're all jitterbugs, and the jitterbugs are termites that ruin dance floors.

Really though, we learn to put up with them and find that they have some pretty talented kids. Those boys on the team are whizzes and the class really excels in music, with 22 in band and 11 in Concert Choir. G.A.A., F.F.A. and 4-H take an important part in their busy lives too!

Believe it or not these little dears are not as bad as they look in these photos!

BAR 9 RANCH

When the year began we were a group of pretty green cow-hands. We took a lot of bumps and spills but, believe it or not, we made it. Twelve of us were in band and twenty-nine in mixed chorus. As for sports, we were pretty proud of our basketball team, winning a good percentage of our games and nine girls participated in G.A.A. projects. F.F.A. claimed nine of our boys and two of our girls were librarians. Miss Tyler, Mr. Thornberry, and Mr. Kruse led us through this trying year with surprising patience.

The Breman High School band listed many activities this year, highlighted by a joint concert played with the New Carlisle High School band and the homecoming at Valparaiso University. The band also gave their winter concert in December and delighted many with their marching presentations for the home basketball games. The year was ended by district and state contests and the annual Spring Concert given by the bands and choruses.

CONCERT CHOIR

In corral no. 209 a group of buckeroos gather every Monday, Tuesday, and Friday noons to let out a yippee. After many hours of drudgery, we put in our first public appearance (with over 400 other students) at the Teacher's Institute and were we scared! It turned out to be more fun than it was work. We also sang at the Christmas basketball game and were in other school programs through out the year, and we were called upon by the Kiwanis club to give a program on January 19. Our year of activities was ended on March 9th in a joint concert with the band.

G. A. A.

The Girls Athletic Association is organized to better the physical efficiency of the girls of High School age. The girls participate mostly in softball, basketball, and volley ball. The A and B basketball teams traveled to Walkerton and Madison, and Washington Clay came here only for Bremen to suffer defeats. One of their big social events was the party at the beginning of the year to initiate new members.

BASKETBALL SUMMARY

The Bremen Lions suffered another fruitless season. After losing twenty games last year the first three games this year, the Lions finally won by defeating Syracuse 48-42; but again, they fell back into the same old rut. They lost the rest of the games with several close ones.

We wish Mr. Kruse and the boys of Bremen High the best of luck in the coming years.

YELL LEADERS

Rosemary Mutti, Violet Borkholder, Shirley Long, Carol Weston.

This year the cheerleaders were four senior girls. Besides leading the yells for the varsity and "B" teams the cheerleaders were in charge of the pep sessions. These pep sessions usually consisted of a skit, student speaker, the Sportsmen Quartet (girls), the boy's quartet, and the sophomore band.
